Procter and Gamble R&D PhD Seminar

Are you in your final year of a
Ph.D. in Science or Engineering?

P&G are currently looking for and recruiting talents from Cambridge in their final year of their PhD from all science backgrounds to join our R&D community at sites across Europe (UK, Germany, Belgium, Italy).

The R&D PhD Seminar offers the chance to gain firsthand experience of what a career in Procter & Gamble's R&D function entails, from April 21st – 25th 2013.

Successful seminar applicants may also be offered full-time jobs with P&G, our main method of PhD recruitment.

APPLICATION DEADLINE IS 11th Nov 2012
