

Hello! My name is James and I'm a second year PhD student working on Blood Stem Cells. I am interested in becoming the ethical and environmental officer because I care a lot of about the environment. As evidenced by my involvement with the Hughes Hall Green Impact team this year, I am determined to make Hughes a more environmentally friendly college. I hope to gain your vote and make some positive changes in college next year!